

FRIDAY, MAY 10 2013
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

HISTORIES OF VIOLENCE: WAR AND MEMORY

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

The Ruses of Freedom: A History of Violence

Lisa Lowe, Tufts University

FEATURED ROUNDTABLES

Scars of War, Slavery, Colonialism: Histories of Mutilated Bodies

Gender and In/Visibility: Sexual Violence and War

*Geographies of Violence:
Spatial Politics and the Carceral State*

Militant Bodies: Embodying and Performing State Violence

Lingering Pasts and Closer Futures: Forming New Political Subjects

New Work on Histories of Violence: Methods, Theories and Interventions

RSVP BY APRIL 26 TO

HISTORIESOFVIOLENCE@GMAIL.COM

ANNIE MAY SWIFT HALL / NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

*Sponsored by the Program in American Studies,
the Critical American Studies Working Group at Northwestern University, and the Histories of Violence Collective*